September 8, 2021

PUBLIC NOTICE

30-DAY PERIOD FOR INCLUSION OF PREDOMINANTLY VIABLE AGRICULTURAL LANDS
INTO EXISTING AGRICULTURAL DISTRICTS

Per New York State Agriculture and Markets Law Section 303-b, the Erie County Legislature designated September 1 through September 30 as the annual thirty-day period during which landowners may submit requests to include predominantly viable agricultural land into an existing certified agricultural district.

Copies of the application form have been provided to Municipal Clerks, Assessors, and Chief Elected Officials for distribution to interested landowners. The application is also available on the DEP website at www.erie.gov/agenrollment.

The Erie County Department of Environment and Planning will accept applications from September 1 through September 30. Any questions on this process should be directed to the Erie County Department of Environment and Planning.

A public hearing will also be scheduled at a later date to consider all inclusion requests and the recommendations of the Erie County Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board.

Supervisors Report: Supervisor Hartman shared The Town of Eden is in the process of applying for a TAP Grant, this is a transportation grant. The Town of Eden is looking to utilize the grant if approved for safety. Supervisor Hartman listed some items they were focusing on, such as repair sidewalks, gain crosswalk enhancements, as well as school safety improvements, specifically between Eden Elementary School and the Boys and Girls Club on N. Main Street. The application is due at the end of the month. Supervisor Hartman also stated the New York State DOT has been extremely helpful to the Town of Eden during the process of putting the application together. The Town of Eden is hopeful in working with them they will consider a heavier road project in the future with The Town of Eden.

Hearing of Visitors: Robert Cook Town of Eden resident stated he had a few questions for The Eden Town Board. Starting with how zoning board members get selected. Supervisor Hartman explained when a spot on the zoning board opens, the position is filled by an application and interview process. Next Mr. Cook inquired about Town of Eden residents appealing a variance decision recently made by the Zoning Board. William Trask Town of Eden attorney stated that would be a question for legal counsel of Mr. Cooks own, Mr. Trask stated there is no legal advice that would come from the Eden Town Board. Mr. Cooks last statement to The Eden Town Board pertained to 2535 Beverly Drive, Mr. Cook expressed concerns of it being vacant. Code Enforcement Officer Dave Rice stated this specific home is tied up in the court system. Supervisor Hartman noted that the outside was being maintained and The Town of Eden was aware of the situation.
